ROWLAND was employed in his father's drug store at Gary, South Dakota, from June, 1936, to October, 1941. From October 5, 1941, to September 20, 1942, he was employed by the Sherwin-Williams Company, Linseed Oil Division, 24th Street West and Cuyahoga, Cleveland, Ohio. From October 1, 1942, to December 15, 1942, he was employed as a billing clerk by the Alabam Freight Lines, Phoenix, Arizona. He was inducted into the United States Army on December 30, 1942, and was discharged on March 7, 1946. His army serial number was 37545297, and he attained the rank of Staff Sergeant. He was re-employed in his father's drug store at Gary, South Dakota, from March 15, 1946, until the business was sold after his father's death on January 30, 1947. He moved to Minneapolis, Minnesota, in February, 1947, and was employed for a short time by the Minneapolis Honeywell Regulator Company, being discharged for an unknown reason. He was employed by the Western Electric Company in St. Paul from February 26, 1947, to March 21, 1947, when he resigned to secure other employment.

While in Minneapolis ROWLAND resided at 2428 Aldrich South, and at present he is residing in Apartment 3, 303 Aurora Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota.

[redacted] State Board of Health, Pierre, South Dakota, verified the birth of CHARLES DENNISON ROWLAND as August 24, 1917, at Gary, South Dakota, the son of WALTER J. and BIRDIE B. GRIFFIN ROWLAND.

ROWLAND has no record at the Minneapolis Credit Exchange or the Minneapolis and St. Paul Police Departments.

ACTIVITIES

The St. Paul Office files contain copies of a newspaper, "The Plainsman," published by the American Veterans' Committee at Gary, South Dakota. A review of this newspaper reflects that subsequent to his discharge from the U. S. Army, ROWLAND returned to Gary, South Dakota, and assumed the position of field secretary of the newspaper. It should be noted that the field office address for the paper was Box 210, Gary, South Dakota, which is also ROWLAND's address.

The August 1, 1946, issue of this newspaper carried an editorial castigating Representative RANKIN relative to the investigation of atomic scientists at Oak Ridge, Tennessee. [redacted] a columnist for the newspaper, in an article entitled "Midwest Political Notes" said in part:

[redacted] of the Rankin Committee on un-American activities, has just 'investigated' the atomic scientists at Oak Ridge, Tennessee. I hear that the committee is next looking into the record of Jesus Christ who, it seems, has Communist leanings."

St. P 100-6539

*Conf. Info.
[redacted] advised that on January 13, 1947, ROWLAND wrote a letter from Gary, South Dakota, to [redacted] of the Communist Party, [redacted] of the Communist Party Veterans' Commission, and former Communist Party candidate for the office of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner in Minnesota. He thanked [redacted] for recommending him for the position of organizing a Veterans' Conference, and stated he would be unable to meet [redacted] in Minneapolis on January 20, 1947, because of the recent death of his father. He stated that as soon as he had straightened out his father's affairs he intended to make his permanent home in Minneapolis, and he would then be able to accept the position offered by [redacted].

*Conf. Info.
ROWLAND secured employment at the Minneapolis Honeywell Regulator Company upon his arrival in Minneapolis in February of 1947. [redacted] advised that ROWLAND was fired a few days after he secured employment at Honeywell. [redacted] of the Communist Party, told [redacted] that,

"One of our fellows, CHARLES ROWLAND, got fired by Honeywell as a result of investigation by the FBI. I told CHUCK to keep his mouth shut until after the six-month probationary period, and he insists he did but they fired him anyway."

[redacted] advised that a meeting of the Youth Commission of the Communist Party was held at Communist Party Headquarters in Minneapolis on February 3, 1947. [redacted] of the Communist Party, stated that the Communist Party was conducting a drive during the next six months to build up the Party in Minneapolis. In order to do this, they were considering organizing youth clubs in Minneapolis to function along with the American Youth For Democracy. Such youth clubs would primarily operate for educational purposes and to explain the problems of the Party. At the meeting ROWLAND was suggested as one of the persons who would be active in forming such youth clubs.

According to [redacted], on February 25, 1947, ROWLAND attended an executive committee meeting of the Youth Commission of the Communist Party at Communist Party headquarters. At this meeting ROWLAND gave a report on "red-baiting." ROWLAND named as the chief red-baiters today J. EDGAR HOOVER, MSGR. FULTON J. SHEEN, [redacted] of the American Veterans Committee, AMERICAN LEGION, AMVETS, and most of the capitalistic newspapers. At this meeting ROWLAND was made educational director of the Commission.

[redacted] also advised that ROWLAND attended a leadership class meeting of the Communist Party at Communist Party headquarters on February 27, 1947, the class discussion being led by [redacted] of the Communist Party. At this meeting ROWLAND stated that the capitalists and the monopolists, not only nationally but internationally, were preparing for another war and that this was evidenced by their drive for anti-labor legislation, their drive to skyrocket prices, particularly food prices.

St. P 100-6539

At a Veterans Commission meeting of the Communist Party held at Communist Party headquarters in Minneapolis on March 2, 1947, attended by [redacted] of the Veterans Committee for the Communist Party, MARTIN D. MACKIE, District Number Nine Chairman of the Communist Party, [redacted] and CHARLES ROWLAND, [redacted] advised that the subject for discussion was the coming national elections of the American Veterans Committee. At this meeting [redacted] told ROWLAND that he had put him on the Veterans Commission of the Communist Party and cautioned ROWLAND about his new job. "You want to be a normal union member. Belong to your Communist Party club and don't get involved in anything that might lose you your job, at least for sixty days. Then it will be a little more difficult for them to fire you."

On March 19, 1947, according to information furnished by [redacted], ROWLAND and [redacted] were discussing veteran activities of the Communist Party at Communist Party headquarters in Minneapolis. ROWLAND advised that he had written an article which was to be sent out to all veterans organizations under the name of the Communist Party. It set out the aims of the Party, both long and short term, in a series of questions and answers, and urged the denouncing of legislation against the Communist Party as violation of democratic rights and principles.

According to [redacted], on March 23, 1947, ROWLAND attended a meeting of the Veterans Commission of the Communist Party and made arrangements for a secret caucus of left wingers of the AVC in order to plan their strategy, name candidates, and draw up a platform for the national convention. ROWLAND stated he had recently become a member of the Macco-Harris Post of the American Veterans Committee, not so much as a matter of choice, but to help [redacted], a Communist, get the post straightened out.

On March 23, 1947, LEONARD DICKENSON, representative in the Minnesota State Legislature from Bemidji, Minnesota, contacted the St. Paul Office and advised that he was the author of a bill to bar the Communist Party from the ballot in Minnesota. He stated that he had received a telegram requesting that the bill be voted down. This telegram was signed by eight persons, including ROWLAND, and it was noted that the other seven were members of the Communist Party.

The "Minneapolis Star Journal" in the April 26, 1947, edition contained a letter to the editor from ROWLAND which is quoted as follows:

"The Hartley Bill is the most ominous manifestation of fascist ideology in our country today. The bill, if passed, will mean the death of equitable bargaining between workers and employers. Once the closed shop, industry-wide bargaining, jurisdictional disputes and everything else essential to union growth and security are outlawed, monopoly capital will be undisputed master of us all."

St. P 100-6539

The "Minneapolis Tribune" dated May 3, 1947, advised that the Macoe-Harris chapter of the American Veterans Committee, Minneapolis, headed by CHARLES DENNISON ROWLAND, voted unanimously to join in the sponsorship of HENRY A. WALLACE's appearance in Minneapolis on May 12, 1947.

On May 21, 1947, ROWLAND attended a committee meeting at Communist Party headquarters in Minneapolis and, according to [redacted], considerable time was spent in discussing qualifications for joining the Communist Party.

[redacted] furnished a typewritten statement which he obtained June 5, 1947, which stated that [redacted] was on the State Veterans Committee of the Communist Party. This statement contains the typewritten signature of [redacted], contains the names of the group, and on the back of the statement was written the names of veterans who were Communist Party members. ROWLAND's name also being included on this list.

According to [redacted], ROWLAND contacted Communist Party headquarters in Minneapolis on October 4, 1947, and obtained leaflets from [redacted] for distribution. The leaflets had to do with the high cost of living.

The "Minneapolis Daily Times" newspaper dated December 10, 1947, stated that CHARLES ROWLAND, State Executive Secretary of the American Youth For Democracy, was chairman of the meeting which sponsored the Minneapolis appearance of GERHART EISLER and CARL MARZANI on December 9, 1947. The American Youth For Democracy sponsored the meeting at the Labor Lyceum, and ROWLAND introduced the speakers. Special Employee [redacted] of the St. Paul Office attended the meeting and heard ROWLAND state, in introducing EISLER, that American Youth For Democracy sponsorship of the meeting did not mean that the group approved of EISLER's position. He went on to state that the American Youth For Democracy has Communists in its membership, but stated that the American Youth For Democracy is specifically not a Communist organization.

A few days prior to January 15, 1948, [redacted] of the building located at 1607 Nicollet Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota, advised Special Agent [redacted] of the St. Paul Office that ROWLAND had contacted [redacted] and made arrangements to rent Room 8 on the second floor at 1607 Nicollet for the American Youth For Democracy, the rental to begin January 15, 1948. ROWLAND furnished [redacted] with a notation on which was written CHARLES ROWLAND, Executive Secretary of the Minnesota organization of American Youth For Democracy. ROWLAND's home address was given as 303 Aurora Avenue, Apartment 3, St. Paul 3, Minnesota, and his telephone number as Mulberry 3042.

The "St. Paul Dispatch" newspaper dated February 12, 1948, advised that the Minnesota chapter of American Youth For Democracy would sponsor a rally on February 13, 1948, at the Minneapolis Labor Temple protesting universal military training. The February 12, 1948, issue of the "St. Paul Dispatch" quoted ROWLAND as saying that universal military training would lead directly to war. He went on to say:

"The push to pass the universal military training bill is part of the drive fostered by the administration and Wall Street to bolster reactionary governments in Europe against democracy and prepare Europe for war while taking away our civil liberties at home."

ROWLAND presided at the meeting which was addressed by [redacted] of the Wesley Methodist Church in Minneapolis, [redacted] University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and CLARENCE HATHAWAY, Business Agent for Local 1139, United Electrical Workers - CIO. HATHAWAY is former editor of the "Daily Worker" and is presently active in Communist affairs in Minneapolis.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that ROWLAND, on March 22, 1948, together with MARTIN MACKIE, District Number Nine Chairman of the Communist Party, [redacted] of the Communist Party, and SAM K. DAVIS, recently ousted business manager of "Minnesota Labor," official CIO organ, former Communist Party candidate for Governor, and presently District Circulation Manager and correspondent of the "Daily Worker", contacted the City Attorney's office requesting a warrant for an unknown assailant who allegedly assaulted ROWLAND on March 22, 1948, on 13th Street and Nicollet Avenue in Minneapolis.

By letter dated April 3, 1948, the Bureau furnished the following identification record for ROWLAND, FBI Number 5085792, which is as follows:

Furniture Manufacturing Company, Incorporated, 4433 South Alameda, Los Angeles.

On September 14, 1950, [redacted] Elster's Home Appliance and Store Fixtures, 115 South Los Angeles Street, Los Angeles, made available the employment record for subject, which reflected that he was employed by this concern on March 15, 1950, as an Advertising Layout Man. [redacted] stated that on about July 15, 1950, ROWLAND left this employment voluntarily, stating that he was returning to the residence of his mother in South Dakota inasmuch as she was critically ill. During his absence he wrote to [redacted] advising that she had recovered from her illness and that he was returning to Los Angeles and desired re-employment. [redacted] advised that the subject appeared at his place of business on September 14, 1950, in an effort to get back his old job, however, [redacted] stated that there was no position open for the subject at that time.

T-3, of unknown reliability, a self-admitted member of the Communist Party and former close associate of the subject, acting in a totally unsolicited manner, voluntarily advised that the subject had been employed by the Morris Furniture Manufacturing Company, Incorporated, during the week of November 7, 1950.

Military Service

Records of Elster's Home Appliance Company reflect that the subject was in the United States Army from December 1942, until March, 1946. On this employment record the subject stated that he was Chief Education and Information Instructor, and that he received an honorable discharge.

Background

On November 6, 1950, T-3 voluntarily advised this office that he had been closely associated with the subject since about March of 1950. He stated that the subject resided in a rooming house with one ROBERT HULL and [redacted]. T-3 further stated that he himself had been discharged from the U. S. Army in December, 1947, as a psychoneurotic, the basis of this discharge being that he was a homosexual. T-3 stated that the subject, ROBERT HULL, and [redacted] were also homosexuals.

LA 100-30913

Identification Record

There is no record for the subject at the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office or at the Los Angeles Police Department.

ACTIVITIES

Communist Party

The following informants, all of known reliability, advised on the following dates that they have no information concerning the subject:

Informant	Date
T-4, who is generally cognizant of Communist Party front activities in the area in which the subject resides.	5/4/51
T-5, who is cognizant generally of Communist Party activity in Los Angeles County.	3/5/51

T-8, who is acquainted generally with Communist Party activity in the vicinity of the subject's residence.	4/30/51

Miscellaneous

Records at the Los Angeles County Registrar of Voters reflect that CHARLES D. ROWLAND, 533 South Manhattan Place, Los Angeles 5, registered on March 1, 1950, indicating his intention to affiliate himself with the Independent Progressive Party in the ensuing general election. This record further reflects that ROWLAND was born in South Dakota, that he is 5' 11½" tall, and listed his occupation as teacher.

T-5, of known reliability, advised on January 31, 1951, that the Independent Progressive Party in Los Angeles County is under the complete control of the Communist Party.

The Communist Party sets the organizational goals of the Independent Progressive Party, lays down its perspectives, organizes its forces, proposes its levels of organization, and assigns its leadership.

T-9, of known reliability, advised on June 26, 1950, that in the Midtown Division of the Communist Party, the Communist Party is using the Independent Progressive Party to put over its program to the general Communist Party membership and the general public because of recent national and local legislation affecting the Communist Party. Mere membership in the organization, however, does not, of itself, indicate Communist Party membership on the part of any particular member.

It is noted that 171 South Hoover Street, Los Angeles, comes within the area included in the Midtown Division of the Los Angeles County Communist Party.

(LACCP) from 6/50 to 9/50

T-18 advised on November 6, 1950 that CHARLES ROWLAND was a member of the LACCP, according to [redacted], LACCP Club official, who said ROWLAND was dropped from the LACCP for going into Mexico to hide at the outbreak of the Korean War.

According to this source ROWLAND and two friends, ROBERT HULL and [redacted], went to Mexico on July 20, 1950 to escape possible arrest at the outbreak of the Korean War. According to this source ROWLAND had come to Los Angeles from Minneapolis with ROBERT HULL in 1949. Source said that ROWLAND, HULL and [redacted] were homosexuals and admitted that the basis for his discharge from the military service was that he, the source, was a homosexual.

INTERVIEW OF CHARLES ROWLAND

On August 20, 1952 ROWLAND was interviewed at 11506 Davenrich Avenue, Norwalk, California, by SAs [] and [], at which time he stated he had nothing to say to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

T-24, T-25 and T-26 advised in January, 1954 that ROWLAND was not active in clubs of the LACCO in the immediate area of his residence to their knowledge.

MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITIES

AMERICAN YOUTH FOR DEMOCRACY (AYD)

The AYD has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Minneapolis "Daily Times" newspaper, dated December 10, 1947, stated that CHARLES ROWLAND, State Executive Secretary of the AYD, was chairman of the meeting which sponsored the Minneapolis appearance of GERHART EISLER and CARL MARZANI on December 9, 1947. The AYD sponsored the meeting at the Labor Lyceum and ROWLAND introduced the speakers. SE [] attended the meeting and heard ROWLAND state in introducing EISLER that AYD sponsorship of the meeting did not mean that the group approved of EISLER's position. He went on to state that the AYD has Communists in its membership but stated that the AYD is specifically not a Communist organization.

GERHART EISLER is now reportedly in the Eastern Zone of Germany, according to local press reports.

T-7

ROWLAND, as Executive Secretary of the Minneapolis organization of the AYD in January, 1948, made the arrangements for the rental of AYD offices at 1607 Nicollet Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota, at which time his home address was listed as 303 Aurora Avenue, Apartment 3, St. Paul, Minnesota.

The St. Paul "Dispatch" newspaper, dated February 12, 1948, reflects that the Minnesota Chapter of the AYD would sponsor a rally on February 13, 1948 at the Minneapolis Labor Temple protesting universal military training and quoted ROWLAND as saying that the universal military training would lead directly to war. ROWLAND went on to say: "The push to pass the universal military training bill is part of a drive fostered by the Administration and Wall Street to bolster reactionary governments in Europe against democracy and prepare Europe for war while taking away our civil liberties at home.

T-13

ROWLAND, late in 1948 contacted [redacted] CP, regarding fund raising efforts to send [redacted] to Warsaw, Poland to attend the International Conference of Farm and Working Youth.

On July 10, 1948 ROWLAND sent telegrams to Mr. JOHN J. SCANLON, Acting Chief, Passport Division, State Department, Washington, D. C., urging immediate issuance of passports to delegates of the AYD to attend the International Conference of Working Youth to be held in Warsaw.

T-15

On January 22, 1949 ROWLAND attended a farewell party celebrating the dissolution of the AYD where he gave the introductory speech on "A Review of the AYD".

CIVIL RIGHTS CONGRESS (CRC)

The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

T-12

ROWLAND's name was maintained by the CRC in Minneapolis.

T-14

ROWLAND, among others representing the Minneapolis Chapter of the CRC, in 1948 picketed the Federal Court Building, Minneapolis protesting the indictment of CP leaders in New York. MM

T-11

ROWLAND attended a dinner held December 21, 1948 at [redacted] [redacted], sponsored by the CRC, at which GIL GREEN, CP leader, spoke regarding the coming trials.

T-27

The name, CHARLES ROWLAND, was maintained by the CRC in Los Angeles in 1952 and used in a telegram to the Attorney General McGRATH, protesting the trial and conviction of the eleven CP leaders.

MISCELLANEOUS

INDEPENDENT PROGRESSIVE PARTY (IPP)

T-19 advised in March, 1952 that the IPP in Los Angeles County is under the complete control of the CP which sets its organizational goals, organizes its forces and assigns its leadership. Membership in the IPP, however, does not of itself indicate CP membership on the part of any particular member.

CHARLES D. ROWLAND, 533 South Manhattan Place, Los Angeles, on March 1, 1950, declared his intention to affiliate himself with the IPP at the ensuing primary election. ||

"DAILY WORKER" and "WORKER"

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper. The "Worker" is the weekend edition of the "Daily Worker".

T-16 advised on January 17, 1949 that ROWLAND subscribed to the "Worker" and the "Daily Worker" in Minnesota.

T-17 advised on January 18, 1949 ROWLAND had turned in three subscriptions for the "Worker" in Minneapolis. |)

"NATIONAL GUARDIAN"

The 1949 Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities cited the "National Guardian" as a publication launched in New York in 1948, aiming at national circulation, which they found to be from its inception notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management and content.

ROWLAND received the "National Guardian" November, 1953 at 11506 Davenrich Avenue, Norwalk, California.

Security Index Card Canceled

Informants who have provided reliable information in the past have advised:

In February, 1947, ROWLAND was Educational Director of the Youth Commission of the Communist Party at Minneapolis, Minnesota, and also attended CP class leadership meetings. ROWLAND was also described as an American Youth for Democracy leader and a CP member in the period, 1946-1948. An informant of unknown reliability, an admitted Los Angeles County Communist Party (LACCP) member from June, 1950 to September, 1950, advised in November, 1950, that ROWLAND was an LACCP member who had been dropped for going to Mexico to hide out at the outbreak of the Korean war. ROWLAND on August 20, 1952, refused to be interviewed by Bureau Agents. Informants, who have provided reliable information in the past, have advised that ROWLAND's name was maintained by the Civil Rights Congress at Los Angeles in 1952; that he registered to affiliate with the Independent Progressive Party on March 1, 1950; subscribed to the "Daily Worker" in 1949 and the "National Guardian" in 1953.
